Welcome To Salem

Located in the heart of the Ozarks in south central Missouri, the city of Salem and surrounding Dent County offer abundant natural resources, warm hospitality, and a proud Ozark heritage. Montauk State Park is a popular destination for trophy trout fishing, beautiful camping facilities, and historic sites. The Salem area is well known for its many outdoor recreational activities, including deer and turkey hunting, horseback riding, fishing, camping, and is a favorite place to stay for visitors to the Ozark National Scenic Riverways. Many of our visitors were so attracted by the natural scenery, beautiful weather, and small town living, they've decided to call Salem home. We invite you to discover Salem and Dent County for yourself. There's more to do here. Naturally.

Whether you're a canoeing or camping enthusiast, trout fisherman, deer or turkey hunter, antiques collector, hiker, trail rider, or simply enjoy relaxing in a quiet community that is a genuine slice of Americana, no other city in the Ozarks offers so many natural resources and family-friendly hospitality as Salem, Missouri.

Floating the crystal clear waters of the Current River

The Rally in the 100 Acre Wood draws professional racers and road rally enthusiasts from around the world each February.

The Dent House is a privately-owned residence and is home to a collection of antiques that can be viewed by appointment.

The 4th of July Parade and Fireworks Display is an important tradition in Salem and is a favorite of visitors and locals alike.

The Ozark Natural and Cultural Resource Center hosts a variety of free exhibits. The exhibit shown was produced by the Smithsonian Center for Folklife and Cultural Heritage.

The scenic highways in the Salem area offer spectacular views of autumn foliage from mid-October through November.

There's always something to look forward to in the Salem area. The Rally in the 100 Acre Wood attracts racing enthusiasts from around the world each February. The first of March is traditionally opening day for trout season at Montauk State Park. Turkey hunters flock to the area in the spring and fall to bag trophy gobblers, and the warmer weather brings floaters and campers to the Ozark National Scenic Riverways. Salem celebrates the 4th of July with a hometown parade second to none and one of the largest fireworks displays in the region. Deer hunting, the Fall Festival, and numerous cultural activities accompany the return of autumn color.

Montauk State Park offers many choices for lodging, including well-equipped campgrounds, comfortable guest cabins, and modern motel rooms.

Special events at Montauk State Park range from historical reenactments, educational workshops, museum and nature tours, and fishing derbies for all ages.
